

Round 3 of the Lebanese Karting Championship 2026 Delivers Exciting Racing at RPM Karting Track

Mtein, Lebanon – June 6, 2026 – The third round of the Lebanese Karting Championship 2026 – IAME Series Lebanon, organized by the Automobile et Touring Club du Liban (ATCL), took place on Saturday, June 6, 2026, at the RPM Karting Track in Mtein, bringing together Lebanon's top karting talents in a competitive day of racing.

The event featured three categories: X30 Mini, X30 Senior, and X30 Super Shifter, with drivers battling for valuable championship points as the season reaches its halfway mark.

In the X30 Mini category, Chris Ayoub secured first place after an impressive performance, followed by Claudio Zacca in second position and Rodger Samaha completing the podium in third.

The X30 Senior category witnessed strong competition, with Kamal Samaha taking the victory ahead of Serge Antypas in second place and Kyle El Hachem finishing third. In addition, Christy Dagher claimed the Female Cup honors.

In the highly competitive X30 Super Shifter category, George Nader took first place, followed by Chant Etyemezian in second and Youssef Bassil in third. Chant Etyemezian also secured victory in the Masters Cup category.

With three rounds now completed, drivers continue to collect crucial championship points that will determine the final standings of the 2026 Lebanese Karting Championship. The season will resume after the summer break, with Round 4 scheduled for September, followed by the remaining championship rounds in October and November.